

„He will place the sheep
on his right, but the goats
on the left.” (Matth. 25,33)

Dear friends and supporters of the GPC!

During Sept. 1-3 a group of about 4-6 persons met in Jerusalem to get an overview over the recent developments in the GPC and to coordinate the next steps. Others gave their input in written form. This newsletter contains a brief overview and a summary of the up-to-date development of the GPC.

Summary of 2014 – first half of the year

In the first six months of 2014 the following steps were taken:

- Development of the GPC website www.100-days.eu in English
- Printing of 2.000 GPC-books (“Israel, the nations and the valley of decision”) and distribution via the offices of the 3 initiating ministries + partners in the US, in Israel (Succat Hallel) and elsewhere.
- Printing of a few hundred English books in Kuala Lumpur and distribution in Asia.
- Starting the translation process in about 10 different languages.
- Starting of the translation process of the website in different languages. Spanish and Finnish being included in the Website by 2014-08.
- Harald visiting 7 countries in Africa and 2 countries in Asia as well as a few European nations to kick off the awareness of GPC in those countries.
- (World-) regional coordinators starting the campaign and promotion of GPC in further countries and languages.
- Further communication through the publications and networks of the three initiating organisations (plus first partners).
- Marie-Louise Weissenböck (C4II A/EU) became the assistant to Harald Eckert.
- Rita Quartel (C4II – International office, NL) taking up coordination of GPC book translation and production.
- Developing the two GPC-conferences in Krakow/PL (Jan. 25-29), expecting between 200-300 participants and Jerusalem / Israel (May 10-13), expecting 300-400 participants. First group visits towards both of these conferences were initiated.

As the GPC evolves: 7 projects in one

In thinking and praying through the GPC in and around our meeting in Jerusalem, it became clear that we are dealing with seven projects which together make up the “Global Prayer Call 2015” (GPC):

1. The GPC-conference in Krakow/Auschwitz (Poland) from Jan. 25-29, 2015.
2. The GPC-conference in Jerusalem (Israel) from May 10-13, 2015.
3. The “Global Prayer Day” on January 27, 2015.

4. The “Global Prayer Day” on May 8 (Russian speaking world: May 9) 2015.
5. The 100 days of Prayer between Jan. 27 and May 8, 2015.
6. The translation, production and distribution of the GPC-book.
7. The development of the GPC-website in different languages.

A word about budget and fundraising

As Christians for Israel in Germany (C4II-Germany) – 70 years after the end of the Holocaust – it was our pride and our privilege to finance the initial process of the GPC, including the development of the website, the production and the printing of the English book and part of Harald Eckert’s travel, etc. Our German donors were very faithful to kick off the process.

But now the fundraising for the GPC needs to grow along with the growing size and complexity of the project. We have three major requirements for GPC:

1. Helping different nations and language groups with the production and distribution of the book. A budget of 16.000 USD (12.000 EUR) would make a major difference!
2. Helping to support 2 volunteers on a part time basis to assist Harald Eckert and Marie-Louise Weissenböck as the overall coordinators would make a huge difference (2 x 1000 USD / month for 6 months = 12.000 USD (9.000 EUR) for both.
3. Helping support the travel cost of Harald Eckert (chief coordinator) and regional coordinators especially in Africa, Asia, South/Central America (12.000 USD / 9.000 EUR).

Any additional funds will be used for the numerous general costs of the GPC momentarily carried by C4II-Germany (in true need for your support!).

Please, as you promote the GPC – where appropriate – help to fund the project. And send your financial support earmarked “GPC” to our GPC bank account in Germany:

How you can help

With all of these projects we need different kinds of support from all of you within the different networks and responsibilities! Please consider how and in what areas you can help and/or other persons you might be able to motivate and mobilize to get active, be it as:

- TRANSLATOR (Book, Website, Flyer, Poster, etc.)
- COORDINATOR AND AMBASSADOR – SPREADING THE NEWS (Newspaper, Newsletter, Internet, Mail, by involving people who can act as promoters and multiplication channels).
- ORGANIZER (Of personal, local, regional, national, etc. prayer activities)
- TOUR INITIATORS AND/OR TOUR LEADERS (either to Poland and/or to Israel in connection with our GPC conferences) or
- INTERCESSOR – praying faithfully for the GPC and all of us involved in this project.

Prayer for GPC

The latest GPC-prayer letter is online on the website. Here an extract.

Please pray:

- Especially for the Lord’s protection over Harald – the spiritual pressure is increasing and it is vital to hold up Harald and his family, as well as others who are involved in planning GPC!
- For a good framework or structure for the 100 days of prayer and for a Corporate Prayer and Proclamation to be used in GPC – this has to do with the core or content of the Global Prayer Call!
- For the release of the needed funds of about 40.000 USD / 30.000 EUR for GPC in order to fulfill everything which we sense the Lord has prepared for us.

Please thank the Lord:

- For the meeting with Messianic leaders in Jerusalem on 2 September and for the connection with Succat Hallel in Jerusalem!

If you need added information or help, please contact the following team GPC-team-members:

A final word

As we see the project develop and evolve, the sense of doing something, which is very dear to the Lord is growing. The immediate "signs of the times" like the conflicts in the Middle East, the "signs of heaven" and the significance of the 70-year time period, Israel's continuing struggle against deadly enemies around them and a global misrepresentation if not demonization of Israel constitute a tremendous wake-up-call to the praying church worldwide: Do not remain ignorant, indifferent, distant or arrogant towards the fate of Israel today as the church in Germany and Europe did for the most part towards the plight of the Jewish people 70 or more years ago! Continue to pray for Israel. But beyond that: Please also pray for your own nation, that it stays or becomes a "blessing for Israel" (Genesis 12,3) as the return of the Lord draws near and as the nations will be led into a time of final decision, a "Valley of Jehoshaphat" (Joel 3,1ff) where the sheep nations will be separated from the goat nations (Matth. 25,31ff).

The motto of the Krakow-Conference and the first Global Prayer Day (Jan. 27) will be: "Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, speaks the Lord..." (Isa. 40,1). The motto of the second Global Prayer Day (May 8/9) and the GPC-conference in Jerusalem will be: "For Zion's sake, I will not be silent..." (Isa. 62,1). 70 years after the end of the Holocaust, we as Christians from Europe are calling the praying church around the world: "Please, recognize these signs of the times! Please, do not fall into the same traps that the church of Europe fell into, 70 or more years ago! Please wake up! Please stand up in prayer and intercession! Please join us as praying Christians from Europe in repentance and sorrow in the spirit of Daniel 9 and let us pray with loving concern – for Israel and for our own nations and their relationship to Israel!

In HIM,

Harald Eckert
(GPC-coordinator)
